Risk Disclosure

Futures and Options trading has large potential rewards, but also large potential risk. You must be aware of the risks and be willing to accept them in order to invest in the futures and options markets. Don't trade with money you can't afford to lose. This is neither a solicitation nor an offer to buy or sell futures or options. No representation is being made that any account will or is likely to achieve profits or losses similar to any discussed on this website. The past performance of any trading system or methodology is not necessarily indicative of future results.

This is not an offer to buy or sell futures, options or commodity interests. There are no guarantees or certainties in trading. Trading involves hard work, risk, discipline and the ability to trade through any tough periods during a system's draw-downs. If you are looking for guarantees, trading is probably not for you. While there is great potential for reward trading commodity futures, options, cash currencies and other leveraged transaction products, there is also SUBSTANTIAL RISK OF LOSS. Because the valuation of leveraged transaction products may fluctuate greatly, it is possible to lose more than the amount originally invested. These products are not suitable investments for everyone. Consider your financial condition before deciding to invest or trade. Only "risk capital" should be used for trading. Only trade markets you can properly afford to trade.

CFTC RULE 4.41: Hypothetical or simulated performance results have certain inherent limitations. Unlike an actual performance record, simulated results do not represent actual trading. Also, since the trades have not actually been executed, the results may have under- or over-compensated for the impact, if any, of certain market factors, such as lack of liquidity. Simulated trading programs in general are also subject to the fact that they are designed with the benefit of hindsight. No representation is being made that any account will or is likely to achieve profits or losses similar to those shown.
